

What's New?

Progress report Week 49

A broken axle on a club riding car needs repairing with thicker axles.

Paul reams the wheels out to take thicker axles

Chris fabricates new brake rods for the riding truck.

The new kitchen work surface and flap are complete

Pete relocates some of the pictures that were covered by the new flap.

David and Arthur continue the battle against the leaves

John re-points the brickwork on the mortuary building after it was struck by a falling tree

Roy and Dick re-point the opposite side of the building

New sleepers are fitted to the raised track

Roy spruces up the station raised beds

